

KIRKLANDREPORTER.com

Sydney Goetze, 3, keeps an eye on volunteer Kari Chase as Chase paints a yellow sun on her face during the Kirkland Boys & Girls Club 35th Anniversary celebration on March 14.
Katherine Ganter/Kirkland Reporter

Kirkland Boys & Girls Club celebrates 35 years

Mar 18 2009, 3:15 PM · UPDATED

The community gathered to celebrate the 35th anniversary of the Kirkland Boys & Girls Club on Saturday, March 14.

The event included kids' activities, food and a look back at where the Club has been and a glimpse of where it hopes to go.

During the event, officials revealed plans for the Club's new remodel, which will create a 1,250 square foot Teen Center. The Teen Center will be the Club's fundraising focus this year.

Currently, the Boys & Girls Club include a games room, gym, education center and arts and crafts room. For more information, contact the Kirkland Boys & Girls Club at 425-827-0132 or visit the Club at 10805 124th Ave. N.E.

Find this article at:
http://www.pnwlocalnews.com/east_king/kir/community/41458462.html